EVALUATION/TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROJECT. This project, funded by the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Planning Council, provides technical assistance in program evaluation to primary MR/DD service providing agencies in central Ohio in the form of a Program Evaluation Network. The Network includes both evaluation specialists and executives of the seven participating agencies. The Network seeks to improve program evaluation capabilities within each agency and encourages cross-agency program evaluation in areas of mutual agency concern and activity.

Efforts are underway during the current Project year (1979-80) to expand Technical Assistance Network activity into at least two additional sites in Ohio.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE RESIDENTIAL FACILITIES FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED
6269 Leesburg Pike
Falls Church, Va. 22044
(703) 536-3311

Serving developmentally disabled and other handicaps usually connected with developmental disabilities, the NAPRFMR is directly concerned with all "out-of-home" living situations. The Association collects and disseminates information on housing, income maintenance/security, and insurance programs for facilities. The Association provides the following information services to lay and professional inquirers: (1) answers inquiries by phone or letter, (2) refers inquirers to direct service providers, (3) sends brochures, pamphlets, or fact sheets, (4) sends previously prepared bibliographies, (5) distributes the organization's newsletter, and (6) makes inquiries of other organizations on the inquirer's behalf. Lay persons are also permitted on-site use of the Association's holdings. Also available are reports of studies conducted by the Association.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED CITIZENS
2709 Avenue E, East
Arlington, Tx. 76011
(817) 261-4961

NARC is devoted to improving the welfare of all mentally retarded individuals in addition to fostering research into the causes and prevention of mental retardation. NARC provides help to parents, individuals, organizations, and communities in jointly solving problems caused by mental retardation. The Association provides the following information services to lay and professional inquirers: (1) answers inquiries by phone or letter, (2) refers inquirers to other information centers, (3) sends brochures, pamphlets, and fact sheets, (4) sends previously prepared bibliographies, indexes or abstracts, (5) provides films or other audiovisuals, (6) sends the organization's newsletter, (7) makes inquiries of other organizations on the inquirer's behalf, and (8) permits on-site use of its holdings. Individual bibliographies, indexes or abstracts are also prepared for certain professional requests. Local chapters in many areas sponsor direct services such as day camps, sheltered workshops, special classes and preschool programs, and transportation programs.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION ON MENTAL DEFICIENCY
5101 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20016
(202) 686-5400

The AAMD is an organization of professionals in the field of mental retardation whose purposes are: (1) to disseminate information and promote information exchange among professionals about the most recent knowledge in the field of mental retardation, its prevention and amelioration,

*Descriptions taken from Directory of National Information Sources on Handicapping Conditions & Related Services, Clearinghouse on the Handicapped, DHEW, Washington, D.C. 20201.

(2) increase the skills of professionals and paraprofessionals working in the field of mental retardation through continuing education, (3) develop and disseminate instruments and other materials to help define mental retardation, and provide guidelines to professionals, legislators, and the public about the rights of retarded persons through the development of official position statements, (4) set standards for services to retarded persons through accreditations, litigation and legislation, and (5) educate the public to understand, accept and respect mentally retarded persons. AAMD provides the following information services to professional inquirers: (1) answers inquiries by phone or letter, (2) sends previously prepared bibliographies, indexes or abstracts, and (3) permits on-site use of its holdings. Lay inquirers are referred to other information centers and sent brochures, pamphlets or fact sheets, on request. AAMD publishes the AMERICAN JOURNAL ON MENTAL DEFICIENCY and MENTAL RETARDATION. AAMD has developed an ADAPTIVE BEHAVIOR SCALE.
